

Executive Summary
This report provides a summary of the findings of the research on the impact of the 2008 financial crisis on the UK economy. The research was conducted by the Institute for Fiscal Studies (IFS) and the Centre for Economic Policy Research (CEPR). The findings show that the crisis had a significant negative impact on the UK economy, leading to a sharp decline in GDP and a rise in unemployment. The report also discusses the impact of the crisis on different sectors of the economy and the role of government intervention.
