By Salman Al-Mutairi KUWAIT, Nov 19 (KUNA) -- The Kuwaiti Al-Najat charity on Tuesday inaugurated "Al-Najat complex for orphans" to aid 150 orphans in the African country.

The complex is a hub to provide educational and medical services to the orphans and render them capable to be productive, said the society director general, Mohammad Al-Ansari, in a statement to Kuwait News Agency (KUNA).

It contains residents, a mosque, a water well, ONE clinic and a kitchen, he said, adding that there are also stores, training centers and teaching classes.

Kuwait advocates humanitarian diplomacy, aiding people in need throughout the world. (end) slm.rk
